BRIEF INFORMATION ABOUT THE ACTIVITY

TOPIC/ SUBJECT OF THE ACTIVITY	BOOK Exhibition
OBJECTIVES	➤ To commemorate the Birth Anniversary of the Father of Library Science, Dr. S. R. Ranganathan. ➤ To commemorate the Birth Anniversary of Lokshahir Annabhau Sathe as Writing Inspiration Day (Lekhan Prerna Din). ➤ To provide an opportunity for the students and faculty members of the college to benefit from the exhibition and enrich their knowledge. ➤ To organize the Book Exhibition under the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between Hirachand Nemchand College of Commerce, Solapur, and Telugu Bhasha Abhivruddhi Public Library,Solapur.

METHODOLOGY

The Two-Day Book Exhibition was systematically planned and organized by the Library Department of Hirachand Nemchand College of Commerce, Solapur, on the occasion of the Birth Anniversary of Dr. S. R. Ranganathan, the Father of Library Science, with the objective of promoting reading culture and encouraging the effective use of library resources among students and faculty members.

Planning and Approval

- The proposal for organizing the Book Exhibition was submitted by Dr. Sandeep Lokhande, Librarian, Hirachand Nemchand College of Commerce, Solapur.
- The proposal was approved by Dr. Satyajit Shah, Principal, Hirachand Nemchand College of Commerce, Solapur.
- The exhibition was planned with the objective of creating awareness about the importance of reading, libraries, books, and the effective utilization of library resources.

Organization of the Exhibition

- The Library Department systematically planned the two-day exhibition and arranged a wide range of books for students and faculty members.
- A collection of quality books covering various subjects was made available for display with the support of Best Books Suppliers, Kolhapur.
- The exhibition included books on Literature, Arts, Culture, History, Competitive Examinations, Personality Development, Business, Management, Commerce, Academic Subjects, Reference Materials, and General Reading.
- Students were provided with an opportunity to explore books according to their academic requirements, personal interests, career aspirations, and competitive examination preparation.

Inauguration of the Programme

- The Book Exhibition was formally inaugurated through a Ribbon-Cutting Ceremony, followed by the traditional Deep Prajwalan.
- The programme was graced by Dr. Shivaji Shinde, Deputy Registrar, Punyashlok Ahilyadevi Holkar Solapur University, Solapur, as the Chief Guest and Chief Speaker.
- The programme was presided over by Dr. Satyajit Shah, Principal, Hirachand Nemchand College of Commerce, Solapur.
- The programme was attended by Shri Tanaji Mane, representative of Best Books Suppliers, Kolhapur, Dr. Pritam Kothari, Head of the MBA Department, and Dr. Sandeep Lokhande, Librarian.

Guidance and Interaction

- Dr. Shivaji Shinde addressed the students and highlighted that a library is not merely a collection of books but an important centre for the exchange and socialization of knowledge.
- He encouraged students to develop regular reading habits and to consider books as their lifelong friends.
- Students were encouraged to read original books, quality literature, reference materials, and other authentic sources of knowledge, rather than limiting their reading only to social media content.
- The importance of understanding “Why should we read?” and “What should we read?” was emphasized to develop meaningful and purposeful reading habits.
- Students were motivated to visit the exhibition, explore different categories of books, and select books according to their interests and academic requirements.
- In his presidential address, Dr. Satyajit Shah highlighted the importance of organizing Book Exhibitions on the occasion of Library Day.
- He emphasized that such exhibitions help students become aware of the books available in the library and encourage them to independently explore and utilize library resources.
- He also highlighted various library activities conducted throughout the year for the academic and intellectual development of students.
- Students were encouraged to actively participate in library activities and develop regular reading habits.

Key Achievement

- During the Two-Day Book Exhibition, students purchased books worth ₹11,600, indicating the success of the exhibition in promoting reading habits and encouraging students to access quality books

Conduct of the Programme

- The introductory remarks and the significance of the Book Exhibition were presented by Dr. Navraj Kaldate.
- The programme was compered by Ms. Purva Malwadkar.
- The Vote of Thanks was proposed by Dr. Sandeep Lokhande, Librarian, Hirachand Nemchand College of Commerce, Solapur.

Participation and Follow-up

- The Two-Day Book Exhibition was kept open for students of Hirachand Nemchand College of Commerce as well as college students from the city.
- Students and faculty members were encouraged to visit the exhibition and explore books from different disciplines.
- The exhibition provided an opportunity for participants to identify books of interest and become aware of the latest and useful learning resources.
- The activity aimed to develop a sustainable reading culture, strengthen the use of library resources, and encourage lifelong learning habits among students.

Overall Methodological Approach

The Book Exhibition followed a systematic approach involving planning, approval, collection and arrangement of books, inauguration, expert guidance, student interaction, active participation, and feedback. Through this activity, the Library Department created an effective.

Background:-

The library plays a vital role in supporting the academic, intellectual, and personal development of students. It is not merely a collection of books but an important centre for the exchange and dissemination of knowledge. In the present digital age, there is a growing need to encourage students to develop regular and meaningful reading habits and to make effective use of library resources. With this objective, the Library Department of Hirachand Nemchand College of Commerce, Solapur, organized a Two-Day Book Exhibition on the occasion of the Birth Anniversary of Dr. S. R. Ranganathan, the Father of Library Science.

The exhibition was organized to create awareness among students and faculty members about the importance of reading and the rich collection of books and learning resources available through the college library. It also provided an opportunity for students to explore books beyond their prescribed textbooks and develop an interest in literature, culture, history, competitive examinations, personality development, business, management, and other academic subjects. The Book Exhibition aimed to encourage students to develop a reading culture, understand the importance of “Why should we read?” and “What should we read?”, and consider books as lifelong companions for knowledge and personal growth.

The Book Exhibition also provided an opportunity for students to purchase books of their interest. During the two-day exhibition, students purchased books worth ₹11,600, reflecting their active participation and growing interest in reading and quality learning resources.

The activity was organized with the support of the college administration, faculty members, and Best Books Suppliers, Kolhapur, who made available a diverse collection of quality books for the benefit of students and faculty members. The exhibition was also opened to college students from the city, providing a wider academic platform for exploring books and promoting reading culture.

Overall, the Two-Day Book Exhibition was conceived as an academic and literary initiative to connect students with books, promote effective utilization of library resources, strengthen reading habits, and establishes the library as an effective centre for knowledge sharing and lifelong learning.
